(XLIVth YEAR.) THE (No. 2205.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, APRIL 16, 1789.

WARSAW, December 31.

A REPORT is circulated here this morning, that the emperor had accepted of the mediation of the court of Berlin towards bringing about a peace; nevertheless we learn, that the greatest preparations are making at Conſtantinople for another campaign, and that the Porte inſiſts upon the repoſſeſſion of the Crimea, at leaſt that it ſhall be under the independent government of a prince of the Mahometan religion.

Jan. 14. Letters from Ruſſia inform us, that every one is obliged to deliver up their plate to government, for which they receive bills in return. This plan is already begun to be put in execution at Riga.

The Porte has lately ſent the moſt peremptory orders to Bagdat, and the different baſſas on the coaſt of Arabia, and Aſiatic Turkey, to ſeize, either in port or at ſea, all veſſels navigating under Daniſh as well as imperial colours; to confiſcate their cargoes, and ſend their crews (be they of what nation they will) into ſlavery, and to fit out what maritime force they can for that purpoſe.

VIENNA, December 14.

An immenſe quantity of ſnow, ſuch as the memory of man cannot parallel, at preſent diſtreſſes the inhabitants of this city and country, interrupts our poſts and trade, threatens us with a dreadful famine, and particularly a ſcarcity of water. We cannot ſufficiently, under theſe circumſtances, applaud the care of his imperial majeſty, who gave immediate orders to the police to clear the ſtreets, at leaſt ſo far as to render them paſſable. It is when ſuffering under ſuch calamities that we hail our ſovereign as the father of his people, and the refuge of the miſerable. It may be readily ſuppoſed that in ſuch a diſmal ſeaſon we are deprived of news.

Our moſt eminent phyſicians have given it as their opinion, that if his imperial majeſty continues the ſame fatigue he underwent laſt campaign, he will bring on a dropſy of the breaſt. His majeſty therefore has reſolved to try the baths at Piſa ſome time about February next.

Jan. 9. They write from Semlin, that for the purpoſe of cutting off the communication with Prudor, our cordon is continued on the Turkiſh territories as far as one mile on the other ſide Old Gradiſca; each poſt being occupied by a detachment of thirty men.

FRIESLAND, December 21.

The weather in this part of Holland is the moſt ſevere and intenſe ever known: travellers have been found frozen to death on horſeback—cattle have died in great numbers, and thoſe perſons who have ſhut themſelves up in their bake-houſes have not eſcaped.—Such a ſeaſon has not been known in our memory.

LOWER-RHINE, December 27.

Sad accounts are received from all parts of Germany concerning the ſudden and ſevere froſt. Many people and animals have been found frozen to death in the roads, which the great fall of ſnow has rendered impaſſable. This age affords no example of ſo ſevere a froſt as there was in many places on the 17th inſtant; in the morning of that day Farenheit's thermometer, at Leipſic, was 27 degrees below 0, which is from five to ſeven degrees lower than it was in the famous winters of 1739 and 1740. In the ſouth part of Germany the cold has not been ſo ſevere; the Rhine is froze over at Cologne, and in many places waggons and heavy carriages paſs over it loaded.

PARIS, November 13.

M. de Tilly, the page, is ſent to priſon, by an order from the marſhals of France, for daring publicly to boaſt of his having fought a duel with his nameſake. He is to remain in confinement for the ſpace of ſix years and a day. The other Tilly is not dead, and it is thought he will recover of his dangerous wound.—He will be obliged, however, to remain where he is, in Auſtrian Flanders, or expoſe himſelf, if he comes, to be deprived of his liberty like his antagoniſt. Duels are no more permitted in France than in England, and the marſhal's tribunal is as deſpotic and ſevere as any of the martial laws under the late king of Pruſſia.

LONDON, January 30.

Extract of a letter from Cadiz, January 3.

"The laſt accounts from Barbary mention, that the dey of Algiers has declared war againſt Denmark; they likewiſe mention that the quarrel between the emperor of Morocco and the dey is made up; it ſeems the emperor was obliged to pay a large ſum of money down, beſides all the expences the dey was put to on account of the rupture."

Extract of a letter from Alicant, December 29.

"Yeſterday at four o'clock, P. M. anchored off here, two Algerine rovers of twenty guns each, full of men, in company with a ſtout ſhip a prize, ſuppoſed to be a Dane. The next morning two large ſhips appeared in the Offing, upon the ſight of which they weighed and made all the ſail they poſſibly could after them, and in two hours they were out of ſight. The captain of a barque came in the next day, and ſays, the pirates paſſed him the evening before under a great preſs of ſail in purſuit of their prey, and ſoon after heard a heavy cannonading, from which we imagine they came up with the chaſe."

Extract of a letter from Naples, December 30.

"The Algerines ſtill infeſt our ſeas, and have lately made ſome valuable captures, amongſt which, we are informed, is a French corvette, from Marſeilles, to a market, 300 quintals burthen, with a rich cargo; likewiſe two ſhips loaded with corn, dried fiſh and oil, bound to Civita Vecchia; the two latter were taken by a corſair of 36 guns, in ſight of one of the pope's men of war, and what is more remarkable, the infidels had the inſolence to hoiſt a flag of defiance daring her to combat."

Feb. 1. Letters from France mention the continuance of the great ſcarcity of grain there. As a proof of it, the following bounties are to be allowed in the importation of the following articles, for four months from the 15th of February:—15 ſols per quintal of wheat; 20 ſols per quintal of flour, and 12 ſols per quintal of rye. And, as a further encouragement, the tunnage duty of 12 ſols per tun on the veſſels in which grain is imported, is diſcontinued for the ſame time.

Feb. 2. The private account received yeſterday in the afternoon, was more favourable than the report of the phyſicians; it gave an account that at eleven o'clock, the king, attended by Dr. Willis, walked arm in arm, for two hours, in the gardens; and that his majeſty ſeemed quiet and compoſed on their return.

Feb. 4. On Saturday laſt the foreign miniſters ſent off diſpatches to their reſpective courts, announcing his royal highneſs the prince of Wales having accepted the regency of the kingdom of Great-Britain, under the reſtrictions propoſed by both houſes of parliament, during the king's illneſs.

Feb. 5. It is with uncommon ſatisfaction we have obſerved, by the report of phyſicians for ſome days paſt, that his majeſty's ſtate of health becomes more and more favourable; and we hope ſoon to ſee that moment arrive when our beloved ſovereign will be perfectly recovered.

In the new regency bill, a member is expected to move a clauſe, relative to the excluſion of the regent, ſhould he offend againſt a particular act of parliament.

The duke of York is confidently talked of for commander in chief.

When a certain great perſonage was at firſt applied to, relative to the regency and guardianſhip of his majeſty, ſhe was pleaſed to expreſs herſelf, in ſubſtance as follows:—"That ſhe had never choſen to interfere in political affairs; that her gratitude for the reception and treatment ſhe had always met with from this nation, had fixed her reſolution never to hazard their good opinion by a conduct in which from her incompetency ſhe was unable to hope for ſucceſs." The noble and learned lord who communicated the ſubject to her, in order to know her pleaſure, then deſired her determination, in caſe her ſon ſhould refuſe it upon the terms and limitations intended to be offered him; and that if ſhe ſhould then decline, the care of his majeſty would devolve upon others. Here her affection was no longer to be ſtifled, and ſhe declared, "that in ſuch caſe her regard to her king and huſband would not ſuffer her to withdraw a moment from the great taſk that awaited her, in which ſhe could only hope for the bleſſing of Providence to aſſiſt her."

It is not likely now that there will be much more debate, except on the queſtion of limiting the regency—that is, on the motion of which Mr. Pulteney gave notice. The prince, by his anſwer, has pledged himſelf to accept of the regency under the reſtrictions propoſed, and the whole may be finiſhed we think early in the next week.

Feb. 6. On the 20th ult. the king of Sweden held a meeting with the magiſtrates and fifty ancients of the citizens at their town hall in Stockholm; in which they mutually agreed to defend each other againſt the attacks of the common enemy. It is 16 years ſince the above parties met each other, being at the time of the revolution in that country.

In conſequence of the above the preparations for war have attained freſh vigour, and there does not ſeem any probability of a peace this ſpring. The emperor has ordered his field equipages to be ready by the middle of this month.

Feb. 7. Yeſterday at four o'clock the queen was again introduced to his majeſty, where ſhe continued till a quarter before ſix o'clock.

By a gentleman who was permitted to be in Kew gardens on Friday laſt, when his majeſty was taking an airing, we have the pleaſure to hear, that though he appeared much thinner than he was three months ago, yet he looked very well, ſeemed in a good ſtate, and walked firm. In the courſe of his walk, he every now and then ſtopped to talk with one of the pages or Dr. Willis; and from a cloſe obſervation on his manner ſeemed perfectly compoſed.

We hear that as ſoon as ever the warmth of the weather will permit, his majeſty will be removed to Haſtings, or ſome ſuch retreat, for the further aid of ſea-bathing; the queen, two of the princeſſes, and a ſuitable number of attendants, are to accompany him.—His phyſicians to be the two Drs. Willis. The inſpecting phyſician Dr. Giſborne.

NEW-YORK, April 2.

Yeſterday the honourable houſe of repreſentatives of the United States made a quorum, when the honourable Frederick Auguſtus Muhlenberg, Eſquire, of Pennſylvania, was choſen ſpeaker, and John Beckley, Eſquire, of Virginia, ſecretary.

The following letter of a late date is from a gentleman to his friend in America, who has ſent to Europe ſome diſcoveries relative to the magnetic variation.

SIR,

IN anſwer to your letter I recollect that my friend forwarded your memorial to Liſbon: ſhortly after that he ſailed from hence for that city. He has not ſince acquainted me with the ſucceſs your memorial met with there. However, as I expect him here in the courſe of next month, I flatter myſelf that he will be able to give you the pleaſing account of your uſeful diſcovery meeting with the approbation of the learned ſociety of that city.

I am, &c.

To Mr. JOHN CHURCHMAN.

Extract of a letter from Paris, December 14.

"A courier is this moment arrived at the houſe of the imperial miniſter, expreſs from Vienna, with the news of his imperial majeſty being arrived at his palace in that city from Hungary. His arrival was on the 4th inſtant, and the ſame day he gave audience, beſides his own miniſter, to all the foreign ambaſſadors, envoys, &c. reſident at Vienna, who came to congratulate him on his arrival. The courier goes forward directly to London with the packet for the count de Revreckey, his imperial majeſty's envoy and miniſter plenipotentiary. Great preparations are now beginning to be made on Chriſtmas day enſuing, which will be celebrated by a gala at court, and rejoicings on account of the ſovereign's arrival, and the proſpect they have at Vienna of a peace, although they ſtill continue in Germany and Hungary to proſecute their preparations for another campaign after the ſevere weather."

The following is an extract from brigade orders, of the 22d March, 1789.

"His excellency general Waſhington, as preſident of the United States, may be expected in a few weeks, and as it is the duty, ſo the general is perſuaded that it will be the inclination, of the brigade to receive him with every poſſible demonſtration of military reſpect and honour. The legion, and perhaps the whole brigade, will be under arms upon that important occaſion, and are to prepare accordingly.

"The honourable Mr. Adams, as vice-preſident of the United States, is alſo expected to arrive in town in a few days. He is to be received at King's-bridge by the horſe, under the command of captain Stakes, who are hereby put under marching orders for that purpoſe."

Extract of a letter from Cadiz, dated Dec. 31, 1788.

"The Portugueſe fleet ſtationed at Gibraltar to protect their trade, having returned to Liſbon the beginning of this month to refit, gave an opportunity to the Algerine corſairs to come out of the Straits, which the Portugueſe received immediate notice of, ſo that in the courſe of eight days they ſent out a freſh fleet, which ſo cloſely purſued the pirates as to force one of them on ſhore on Cape-de-Gate, where ſhe was entirely loſt; the other put into Gibraltar, where ſhe is blocked up. We cannot find that in the courſe of the few days they cruiſed off St. Mary's, that they took any American veſſels, nor do we think there is any thing to be dreaded from them hereafter, as the Portugueſe ſquadron are not to quit this ſtation this winter."

April 6. Yeſterday arrived in town from Virginia, the honourable Richard Henry Lee, Eſq; one of the ſenators of that ſtate. By the arrival of Mr. Lee, the ſenate now have a quorum. It is expected therefore the two houſes will proceed to buſineſs this day.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Braintree, to his friend in Boſton, dated March 24.

"It may not, perhaps, be unworthy a paragraph in your paper, that his excellency John Adams (the glory of our town, and I believe I may add, one of the ornaments of the age) has lately received an elegant ſuit of American broad cloth, manufactured at Hartford, in which he will make his appearance as vice-preſident of the United States."

PHILADELPHIA, April 6.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman in London to his friend in this city, dated February 4, 1789.

"Our beloved king has been inſane ever ſince the 22d of October laſt, and is incapable of taking care of the government, which will be put (in part) into the hands of the prince of Wales, as regent, during the incapacity of his majesty: he has four or five physicians and three apothecaries, who constantly attend him; he is in bodily health and it is hoped much better than at first, as he is sometimes sensible and has frequent lucid intervals. It is supposed the prince of Wales will go to the house of lords next week.—Soon after Mr. Pitt and most of the cabinet ministers, will resign; when it is expected Messrs. Fox, Burke, Sheridan and Co. will take their places, against the consent of three fourths of the people."

Extract of a letter from Wyoming, dated March 27.

"Major John Jenkins, Solomon Earl, ——— Baker, and William Ransom, about the 10th instant, were surveying lands near the Lakes--one morning about 2 o'clock, 4 Tuscarora Indians and a squaw made an attack upon them in their cabin—the Indians put the muzzles of their guns into the cabin, and each fired—Baker was killed and Earl badly wounded. This awoke major Jenkins and Ransom—the Indians rushed in with the knife and tomahawk: but Jenkins, by an instantaneous effort of bravery, caught hold of an axe and knocked down two Indians—afterwards Ransom assisted and they beat the Indians off, and took each of them guns, tomahawks, &c. Jenkins and his surviving companion lodged that night in said cabin with the dead and wounded—next day returned with Earl to Geneva, (the name of a town on the Lakes.) A scout was immediately sent after the said Indians—when the party arrived at the cabin they found the Indians had been back and taken off all their provisions, their object in this bloody attack. Four Indians are sent in quest of the villains, and have pledged their honour they will not return without their bodies or scalps——God preserve their honour."

Extract of a letter from Liverpool, dated January 4.

"The melancholy situation of the king, together with the minister's ambition in curbing the prince, as regent, and the almost sudden death of the speaker of the house of commons, are very affecting, and shew the uncertainty of happiness, and the enjoyment of this world. I returned from London only last night, and am sorry to say, the public have been and are deceived, with respect to the probability of his majesty's recovery: he is in a most unfortunate state, and his treatment kept secret."

RICHMOND, April 9.

Extract of a letter from a gentleman of veracity in Kentucky, to his correspondent in this city, dated March 9, 1789.

"Our politics seem confused since the arrival of the late act of assembly, for making further provision for erecting this district into an independent state; many think that this business has been unreasonably procrastinated by the state of Virginia, it being now upwards of four years since their first application, and that there are also some stipulations in the late act more rigorous than the first.

"I observed an extract of a letter published in some of your gazettes, said to be written by some person in this country to his friend in Richmond; as I believe it to be dictated by a disappointed man, it cannot be expected that he would stick closely to the truth. He grosly misrepresented facts, and illiberally reflected on characters much more worthy than himself or his correspondent, for no such violent measures as he urges, were publicly avowed; what may be the future conduct of our people on the late act for a separation, I know not, but I see a number who were willing to separate on constitutional terms, much displeased.

"The Spaniards at the mouth of the Mississippi, continue to be friendly, and I really believe would wish to detach us from the union. We meet with a ready sale for all our tobacco and provisions we have yet sent. A few weeks past about 300 hogsheads of tobacco, besides provisions, &c. were sent off from this country for the New-Orleans, and I expect in a few weeks near as much more will be ready for that market. A few days past a vessel of 30 tuns burthen arrived at the Falls, from New-Orleans, loaded with dry goods, grocery, and ironmongery; she had a long passage, being much retarded by the ice, but came very safe; thus you see we have a sufficient out-let, if not obstructed by some wretched political system."

On Saturday the 25th day of April, 1789, will be SOLD, at VENDUE, for ready money,

SUNDRY household FURNITURE, BOOKS and COMIC PRINTS, belonging to the subscriber. Notice of the hour will be given by the bellman. Mr. Richmond takes this opportunity of requesting all persons possessed of books belonging to him, will please to send them to him before the day of sale. 2w

Annapolis, October 1, 1788.

OBSERVING a number of debtors to the ſtate, as well as other individuals, are often in want of ſome kind of certificates, and at a loſs where to get them on proper terms for their money, and the holders of certificates when in want of caſh for them are likewiſe at a loſs for a market, for want of ſome particular place to apply, where they could be on a certainty of getting an exchange on reaſonable terms.

The ſubſcriber being well acquainted with the different kind of certificates and their paſſing value, has induced him to offer his ſervice to provide, and inform thoſe that do or may want, that by leaving the needful he will ſupply them with certificates, or caſh, at a ſhort notice, on reaſonable terms, on paying a moderate commiſſion. There being a number, who have payments to make in certificates to the treaſury, that live at a conſiderable diſtance, many of whom wiſh to make payments as they provide money for that purpoſe, are prevented for want of the certificates, and not being convenient to ride 50 or 100 miles to get them and make a ſmall payment; thoſe who are thus ſituated that wiſh to be provided with certificates, and have them placed to their credit, by forwarding the money at any time may depend on being furniſhed with certificates, and payment made to their orders, on as good terms as if they were preſent, by their

FOR SALE,

By the ſubſcriber, appointed truſtee by the honourable the chancery court of Maryland,

THAT well known ferry at Rock Hall, lately occupied by Mr. BASIL NOIEL. There is on the premiſes a good framed houſe, 36 feet ſquare, four rooms on the lower floor, and three lodging rooms, with four fire places, with a paſſage through the houſe, and good dry cellar, with a partition therein; there is a good kitchen adjoining the dwelling houſe, by a very convenient ſummer room, that has two corner cupboards and ſeats around the ſame: the kitchen is lathed and plaiſtered, with convenient rooms above ſtairs, finiſhed for lodging waiters and gentlemen's ſervants.

There is a ſtable with a paved floor, and carriage houſe adjoining, a negro quarter, meat houſe, a good corn houſe, hen houſe, blackſmith's ſhop, and a convenient warehouſe, at the landing, with a pailed in garden, and a young peach orchard. There is a good well of water in the yard, and a ſpring within thirty yards of the houſe.

There is belonging to the above property 150 acres of land, half of which is cleared and under good fences, divided in fields, and two lots of ſix or eight acres each, adapted to clover or timothy. From its public ſituation it is well known to poſſeſs every advantage that can be expected from keeping a tavern and ferry acroſs the bay to Annapolis and Baltimore-town; it is remarkably healthy; the waters abound with good rock fiſh, perch, crabs, oyſters, and in their ſeaſon, a qantity of wild fowl. The ſale to be made on the premiſes by public auction, the 12th day of May, if fair, if not the firſt fair day thereafter. 6w

The beautiful thorough bred HORSE

HYDER ALLY,

STANDS this ſeaſon at Mount Arrarat, my dwelling plantation, ſix miles below Piſcataway, and covers mares at three guineas the ſeaſon, but in conſequence of the ſcarcity of caſh, two guineas will be taken in lieu thereof, if paid by the firſt of September next.

HYDER ALLY is a fine gray, beautifully dappled, ſeven years old this ſpring, full fifteen hands three inches and an half high, remarkably boney and active. His ſtrong reſemblance to his ſire, whoſe colts having performed ſo capitally on the turf, will be a conſiderable inducement to thoſe who wiſh to breed fine horſes; and the following pedigree (well authenticated) will prove him equal in blood to any horſe on this continent:—

A CAUTION,

To all thoſe who are deſirous to buy the LAND, called

HOPKINS's FANCY.

HAVING ſeveral conveyances from Gerard Hopkins, Elizabeth Hopkins, widow of the late Philip Hopkins, from another deed from Philip Hopkins, from Gerard Hopkins the ſecond ſon, from Richard Dowell and his wife, and ſeveral others, from Hutton and wife, another conſiderable part of the ſaid land; and having other claims againſt the ſaid land, it is with concern that I, the ſubſcriber, Hopkins undertake to advertiſe to ſell the ſaid land on the 15th day of April, 1789, without my knowledge or conſent. The embarraſſment upon it requiring the beſt counſel, I repeatedly propoſed to Richard Hopkins and all concerned, to apply to the honourable the chancellor for his authority and direction, and I went and waited at Annapolis for that purpoſe a long time in vain: under theſe circumſtances I think it fair to publiſh this caution. It is my intereſt that the land ſhall be ſold for the utmoſt price that can be obtained; and I earneſtly deſire that juſtice may be done to every one concerned, but I do not apprehend theſe good effects will ariſe under the management of Mr. Richard Hopkins, and I therefore object to his interfering in this manner.

ST. JOHN's COLLEGE.

THE visitors and governors of St. John's College having, on the 10th of May, 1786, authorized Samuel Chase, Nicholas Carroll and Alexander Contee Hanson, or any two of them, to appoint a person to collect the money, then or thereafter to be subscribed: we, the said Nicholas Carroll and Alexander Contee Hanson, did accordingly, soon after, appoint Archibald Golder, of the city of Annapolis. Of this appointment the public was duly notified. The collector advertised times and places for his attendance in several counties. He attended agreeably to his notice, and moreover made personal application to many of the subscribers. But, although the stipulated periods of payment have long since elapsed, not more than 1500l. out of 11,024l. have been paid.

We have this day renewed our agreement with the collector. Subscribers who have not yet paid their first third, are requested, without delay, to pay the same, and such further part, as they shall think proper, to the said Archibald Golder, or to Benjamin Harwood, treasurer. They will be called on, within a reasonable time, to make the second and third payments, the last of which was due on the 1st of June, 1787.—All legal methods of compulsion would be as disagreeable to the visitors as disgraceful to subscribers. But it is the indispensable duty of trustees to adopt such modes of exacting payment, as shall be found necessary, or expedient.

The building of the college was projected, and begun on a plan, in some measure, proportioned to its nominal funds. For a considerable length of time, it has been suspended, for want of money.—The gentlemen who subscribed liberally, and paid with punctuality, had a right to expect, in the course of four years, that the work would be complete, and the seminary beginning to flourish. They cannot but remember the generous patriotic ardor, with which the institution was commenced. They have sustained an injury from all those whose neglect or failure has retarded its progress; and, for their satisfaction, as well as for other purposes, a list of subscribers names, with the sums subscribed, and the sums paid, will probably be published as soon as conveniently may be, after the 12th day of May next.

At a meeting of the visitors and governors, on the 5th of July, 1786, the second Tuesdays in February, May, August and November, were appointed for their quarterly meetings. A sufficient number hath not, since that period, been convened, although extraordinary meetings have been requested, by public advertisement and personal solicitation. As the repeated disappointments of those who have repaired to Annapolis, at their own expence, for the sole purpose of meeting the visitors, may perhaps, without some particular notice, prevent their attendance, at the next regular stated meeting, we take the liberty of most earnestly entreating every gentleman, who has accepted the trust of a visitor and governor of St. John's College, to attend on the second Tuesday of May next. As the general court will be held on that day, we presume no time more convenient can be mentioned.

It is perhaps proper to inform the public, that the number of visitors cannot exceed twenty-four, that not less than nine can form the corporation; that it has never exceeded eleven; that by death it is reduced to ten; that not less than seven have authority to act; and that only two, at this time, reside at Annapolis. It is almost needless to add, that matters of the greatest importance await their consideration. It is much to be wished, that the number were completed or increased. Whether this object may not be attained, provided nine shall be convened, will be debated at their next meeting; and we hope that, if any gentleman be disposed to resign, he will at least bestow his endeavours, that the body may be first enabled to supply his place.

THE subscribers being very anxious that an immediate payment of what is due them be made, that they may be enabled to comply with their engagements; in order to facilitate the collection, have appointed Mr. JOHN WATKINS, to call upon those who have accounts with them, for the same, whose receipt shall be good; they beg that this notice be particularly attended to, as it is not in their power to give any further indulgence; those who incline to call and pay at Annapolis, will always find a person at their late store on the Dock, or at the treasury-office, ready to receive.

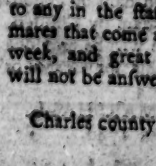
Twenty Dollars Reward.



RAN away from the subscriber's quarter in Loudon county, early in last month, a negro man named GEORGE, he is about 20 years of age, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, his nostrils are remarkably wide, he sometimes complains of a wart on the bottom of one of his feet, which makes him a little lame; he is a likely sensible fellow: He had on a green jacket and overalls, osnabrig shirt, an old hat, shoes and stockings, and took with him a Dutch blanket, a blue broad cloth coat and breeches, a blue jacket without sleeves, and sundry other cloaths—He has been seen near this town since he ran away. Whoever will apprehend the aforesaid negro, and deliver him to the subscriber, or secure him in any gaol, so that he may be got again, shall receive the above reward, and if taken out of this state and brought home, all charges paid.

PHILIP R. FENDALL

Alexandria, Sept. 30, 1788. 20

To be LET for a term of years, on good security,

A MOST valuable and beautiful FARM, situate on the north side of Severn river, about six miles from Annapolis, with a parcel of choice SLAVES, STOCK and plantation UTENSILS.

Also a large commodious HOUSE and GARDEN, pleasantly situated, with a quantity of LAND within two miles of Annapolis.

Any person inclinable to lease either of the above farms may be informed of the terms by applying to Dr. WILLIAM MURRAY, in Annapolis, or Mr. PHILIP ROGERS, in Baltimore. 16

RAN away from the subscriber, a young NEGRO MAN, called DAVY, on the 13th of March, 1789; his dress is an osnabrig shirt, and cotton waistcoat and breeches; it is probable he will change his dress as he has other cloaths; he is an artful, deceiving fellow, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, and stole a large sum of money two or three days before he went off: it is thought he is gone off with his overseer, ROBERT JACKSON, who is gone away with Joshua Pearce's wife. Whoever takes up and secures the said negro, shall be entitled to EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD.

5 ELIZABETH RAWLINGS.

The beautiful HORSE
ROEBUCK,

WILL cover mares this season at the subscriber's plantation in Charles county, at the low price of five pounds currency per mare, and one dollar to the groom, but if the money is paid when the mare is taken away, three pounds, and one dollar to the groom, will be taken in lieu of the five pounds. It is useless to insert his pedigree as it is will known, but it may be seen at his stable. ROEBUCK's stock is remarkable, both for the turf and saddle, I believe equal to any in the state. Good pasturage is provided for mares that come a distance, at two and six-pence per week, and great care will be taken of them; but I will not be answerable for escapes or accidents. 8w

In COUNCIL, Annapolis, March 18, 1789.

WHEREAS, by an act passed at the last session of the general assembly, it is directed, that where executions shall issue to compel payment from any of the debtors of this state, the governor and council shall appoint a person or persons to expose the sale of the property taken in execution, and to purchase the same for the use of the state, if a sale cannot be otherwise made, so as to secure a reasonable price for the property so taken,

We have thought it proper to give public notice, that appointments will shortly be made for the purpose of carrying into effect the intention of the aforesaid act; and to prevent the delay that might arise from refusals of the trust, the board will receive written applications from persons of good character who may be disposed to serve the state in this capacity; as adequate compensation will be given, and security required for the faithful performance of the trust.

A description of the soil, wood, timber and situation, are thought unnecessary, as no person would purchase who would not examine the premises. PROPOSALS,
For Printing by Subscription,
BY ISAAC COLLINS,
IN TRENTON,
THE HOLY BIBLE, CONTAINING
The OLD and NEW TESTAMENT;
WITH THE
Apocrypha and Marginal Notes.

CONDITIONS.

I. This work, to be contained in one large volume, Quarto, of nine hundred and eighty-four pages, will be reprinted page for page with the Oxford edition, on a beautiful new type, and good paper. An index will be added; and also the Scripture measures, weights and coins.

II. The price to subscribers, for the volume, well bound, four Spanish dollars; one dollar to be paid at the time of subscribing, the remainder on delivery of the book.

III. The work to be put to press as soon as three thousand copies shall be subscribed for, and to be finished without delay.

The Editor has been encouraged, by a number of respectable characters, to offer the above proposals to the public, under a conviction that a handsome American edition of the Bible, in Quarto, will, at this time, be both seasonable and acceptable, as no part of the money will go out of the country.

This consideration, it is hoped, will be an inducement to subscribe, and of course promote the more frequent reading of this most invaluable book in private families. He therefore wishes to attract the attention, and obtain the countenance of people of all denominations; not doubting but that, in the execution of the work, he will be able to give ample satisfaction, both as to its accuracy and neatness.

Subscriptions will be received by Hugh Gaine and Edmund Prior, New-York; by Joseph Crukshank and William Young, Philadelphia; by Townsend and Patton, Baltimore; and by the editor in Trenton.

It is requested, that the leading characters of all the different denominations of Christians in the United States, who may feel disposed to promote this undertaking, will, as early as may be, grant their assistance in procuring subscriptions—and that the several printers of news-papers in the union will be pleased to insert the above proposals in their papers. 14

To all whom it may concern.

☞ Mr. Isaac Collins has, for many years last past, been, and still is, printer to the state of New-Jersey: Having by this means had the more frequent opportunities to see his work, I have had abundant proof of the accuracy and correctness of his publications, as well as of his remarkable attention to business.
